

Call for the award of three scholarships for international students enrolled in the course “Laurea Magistrale in Scienza e Tecnologia dei Materiali -

Curriculum SERP+” at the University of Genoa

A.Y. 2024/2025

ART. 1 – Subject.

The University of Genoa offers three scholarships to students who will be enrolled in the course “Laurea Magistrale Scienza e Tecnologia dei Materiali - International Curriculum SERP+” for the first academic year 2024/25 and for the second academic year 2025/26.

The total amount of the scholarship is € 21000,00 (twentyone thousand, 00) net of charges for the beneficiary's account.

The scholarships are intended for students who will attend the classes and the internship at the University of Genoa (second semester of the first academic year (a.y.) 2024/2025, first and second semesters of the second a.y. 2025/26).

ART. 2 – Admission requirements.

Participation in the scholarships competition is limited to candidates:

- holding a bachelor's degree awarded by a non-Italian higher education institution;
- satisfying the curricular requirements of the Laurea Magistrale Scienza e Tecnologia dei Materiali: at least 12 ECTS in Physics, 12 ECTS in Mathematics and 6 ECTS in Chemistry;
- having been accepted in the SERP+ Master for the first academic year 2024/25;
- choosing to attend the 3 semesters mentioned above at the University of Genoa as host institution (note that the internship cannot be purely theoretical)
- the student should not have stopped his/her studies for more than 2 years.
- being 30 years old or less.

ART. 3 – Award criteria.

Scholarships will be awarded on the basis of a merit ranking based on the average of the grades of exams from the past study career.

ART. 4 Financial conditions

The grant will be paid as follows:

1st instalment of the grant €6.000 (contribution to travel expenses included) after registration at the University of Genoa at the beginning of the second semester of the first a.y. 2024/25;

2nd instalment of the grant €5.000 upon passing the summer examinations:

3rd instalment of the grant €5.000 at the beginning of the first semester of the second a.y. 2025/26;

4th instalment of the grant €5.000 upon graduation.

Payment of the above is in any case subject to compliance with the University's financial procedures.

The mobility of the 3 semesters in Genoa must be continuous, therefore any requests for interruption must be promptly communicated to the email serp@unige.it for their evaluation.

ART. 5 – Presentation of applications and documents required.

Candidates are invited to participate in the scholarship competition by filling the specific application form, and sending it signed, to the e-mail address serp@unige.it by 25th July 2024.

In the e-mail candidates must send in attachment also the CV with the curricular career
